1269

Restaurant & Bar

1269 RESTAURANT

Come and enjoy great food at 1269 celebrating fresh, seasonal British ingredients. With our classical ambience along with a relaxed atmosphere you will be sure to have a fantastic dining experience. Our Jospier style grill is the main focal point of the restaurant and is situated in the middle of the restaurant. During the day the table is used as a serving counter. It then transforms into a chefs table providing a more intimate culinary experience. All meat is prepared in house in our ageing room, the meat is sourced from local producers. Some of our meat is marinated, some brined and some natural, all to retain and accelerate original character.

1269 BAR

Is the perfect ambience for a refreshing drink to compliment any occasion. Our top bar cocktails are made with the finest ingredients, an imaginative twist and a passion for perfection. You can also choose from a variety of different whiskies, a wide range of champagnes and selected wines by the glass. If you'd like something to eat whilst you drink, there is a selection of delicious modern European bar snacks to choose from. If you are looking for something a bit more exclusive, why not purchase a special bottle of whisky and store it in our glass whisky vault and drink it as and when the moment presents itself.
